FOX AND BALOGH FIRST MAYVILLE GIRLS NAMED ALL STATE

Kim Fox and Janelle Balogh became the first Mayville girls to be named to an All-State Team in any sport in Mayville's school history. Not bad when you consider that we had only three girls on the team for most of the season. Both are freshmen.

At the State Meet Kim finished second with a time of 19:55 and Janelle finished seventh with a time of 20:34. Both girls won All-State honors as a result of their strong showings.

Two school records fell by the wayside as Kim set our home course record with a time of 20:54 and a school record with her time of 19:55 at the State Meet.

Team honors were: Most Valuable, Kim Fox--Most Improved, Sue O'Rourke.

THINCLADS FOUR AND TWO

The Mayville Cross Country team ended with a four win-two loss season. There were only two seniors on the team, Mark McLane and Pat Smith. There were many individual honors for the team this season.
